COMMITTEE CONFERENCE

Held in Washington Last Evening But No Definite Plan Agreed Upon.

Washington, Jan. 3.—Confronted with the report that William Rockefeller sought since last June to testify in the House money trust inquiry, had left the country. Chairman Pujo has called a meeting of the investigating committee to plan ways and means to capture the elusive millionaire. Mr. Rockefeller has gone to Bermuda, it is reported, but the rumor is not verified.

New York, Jan. 3.—William Rockefeller continued last night to elude the process servers of the house of representatives. Charles F. Riddell, sergeant-at-arms, at the head of an army of assistants and detectives, who for days have been trying to subpoena the financier as a witness in the Money Trust investigation, said last night that all his efforts to get into communication with him had been repulsed. Dr. Walter F. Chapelle, the physician, who is treating Mr. Rockefeller's throat, has refused to tell the government officials where his patient is, while John W. Sterling, Mr. Rockefeller's attorney, "would not be seen," Mr. Riddell said when he went to the lawyer's office. "I had hoped," Mr. Riddell stated, "that all this publicity would shame Mr. Rockefeller out, and that surely he would accept service, but I have not heard a word from any of his representatives." The sergeant-at-arms had no comment to make on a report from Brunswick, Ga., that Mr. Rockefeller was in that city.

The guard around Mr. Rockefeller's Fifth Avenue residence, at his Tarrytown country home and at the home of William G. Rockefeller, his son, at Greenwich, Conn., was maintained as usual without result. (Un-) Congress authorized a writ of attachment for Mr. Rockefeller. Mr. Riddell said there would be nothing to do but to wait for the millionaire voluntarily to accept service.

Reports that the Fifth Avenue residence would be entered by force attracted crowds to the neighborhood yesterday. Lectures on sight seeing automobiles pointed to the mansion and explained the situation to their passengers.

Mr. Rockefeller's brother, John D. Rockefeller, drove up to the house in a touring car during the forenoon and stopped for a moment at the curb opposite the entrance, but did not alight. Just as Mr. Rockefeller was about to get out of his machine a newspaper reporter recognized him and stepped forward to greet him. Mr. Rockefeller turned to the chauffeur quickly and the car shot away before the door had been opened.

COMMITTEE PLANS TO GET ROCKEFELLER

Washington, Jan. 3.—A series of conferences and a vast amount of digging into dusty tomes of law occupied the members of the house connected with the Money Trust investigation in their efforts to evolve a plan to secure the testimony of Mr. William Rockefeller, whom the sergeant-at-arms of the house has tried in vain to serve with a subpoena since last June.

After talking with house leaders, and with Jerry South, chief clerk of the house, Chairman Pujo, of the Money Trust committee last night issued a statement reviewing the attempts to secure the testimony of Mr. Rockefeller in which he expressed the hope that it would not be necessary to exert the "full legal power" of the house to secure service of the subpoena. Mr. Pujo would not say what plans were evolved to aid the sergeant-at-arms in his work. He said a meeting of the committee would be called today or Saturday, and the matter would be taken up formally.

Members of the committee who went over the case with Mr. Pujo, after poring over the precedents were puzzled as to the exact method by which the house could enforce the service of the committee's subpoena. Mr. Pujo, however, was inclined to believe that the fact that the committee had received, through attorneys not acting officially as physicians a certificate stating that Mr. Rockefeller was too ill to testify might be interpreted as an acknowledgment that the process had been issued for him. Mr. Pujo was of the opinion that the facts in the case could be certified to the house and an attachment for Mr. Rockefeller issued by resolution. This would al-

DETECTIVES HAVE SECURED SENSATIONAL INFORMATION IN ASHLAND JURY SCANDAL

Columbus, O., Jan. 3.—More definite details as to the cause of the furor in Ashland, Ohio, over development in the investigation which Attorney-General Hogan is to institute into the administration of justice there, were secured here last night. Sensational information is reported to have been secured by detectives who have been at work.

The word received here from Ashland is that the detectives have secured and have ready to turn over to Hogan, when he arrives today, four long affidavits made by reputable citizens that one of the members of the grand jury, after its final adjournment, openly boasted that certain members of the grand jury were there to prevent the return of an indictment against the policeman who is alleged to have shot and killed Clyde Ebert. Ebert was shot when he ran after police broke up a "keg" party in which he was a participant, and the grand jury stood 11 to 4 for indictment.

The grand juror is alleged to have boasted that the body was "set" against an indictment and that none would be returned, no matter what evidence was adduced.

These and other facts are said to be ready for the attention of Attorney-General Hogan when he leaves there today to begin his work. It is said the same influences that were operated to have the indictment low the sergeant-at-arms to seize the witness forcibly.

While the house officials pondered the question at length, a series of wild reports as to proposed plans for getting the elusive witness circulated about the capitol. One scheme rumored was that the sergeant-at-arms was about to employ a woman detective to get to the missing millionaire. Another was that an attack in force was to be made by the deputies stationed about the Rockefeller home. Still another was that the military authorities would be called on for assistance. The members of the committee laughed at the fantastic rumors and continued to scan their law books. The sergeant-at-arms and his squad of assistants will be kept on duty in New York, in the hope that Mr. Rockefeller may voluntarily accept service, or that he can be reached by strategy.

COWBOYS LOSE WEALTH TO BAND OF SMUGGLERS

Valencia-Minbo, Portugal, Jan. 3.—A daring band of smugglers on the Portuguese-Spanish frontier, carried off $90,000 in cash today after a fierce battle with a cattle raiser and forty of his herdsmen in the course of which nine of the cowboys were killed and fourteen severely injured.

ATTEMPTS SUICIDE FOR FOURTH TIME.

Dayton, Jan. 3.—Thomas C. Baker, aged 76, who has attempted suicide three times by the carbolic acid route, is in a critical condition in a local hospital as the result of a fourth attempt at self-destruction. Baker said he was tired of life.

LITTLE HOPE OF RELEASE; CIRCUIT JUDGES DISCREDIT

Chicago, Jan. 3.—An attempt to free thirty-two of the thirty-three dynamiters convicted at Indianapolis on bail, pending an appeal of the case was made here today in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals. Judges Baker, Seaman and Kohlhaas sitting. Herbert S. Hocking will not appeal. Judge Baker said that the point of the writ of error was not well taken. He added that there was no occasion for the court of appeals to supervise in any case unless it is shown that the procedure of the lower court was questionable at law.

NEWARK SELECTED AS ONE OF FOUR CITIES WHERE COURT OF APPEALS WILL BE HELD

In an effort to hasten the provision of suitable accommodations in Newark for the circuit court of appeals, in order to insure the selection of this city as one of the four permanent stations of the court in the Fifth district, a committee from the Licking County Bar Association waited on the county commissioners Thursday afternoon. The committee was City Solicitor Roderic Jones, Charles L. Flory and B. F. McDonald.

According to the plans announced by the court, four cities in the district will be chosen as permanent stations, and the circuit court of appeals will spend one-fourth of its time in each of these cities. This stopped were invoked in the movement that resulted in the displacement of Prosecuting Attorney George J. Frey and the appointment of a special prosecutor.

The method and procedure of making that removal and selecting the special prosecutor will be one of the first matters taken up for investigation. If the procedure was not according to the provisions of the law the plan may fail and Frey may resume his work to which the people of the county have elected him.

News that an important disclosure was about to be made and that someone had "come through" was circulated yesterday in Ashland and in Columbus. These rumors created something akin to a furor in Ashland, and they have been the one topic of conversation.

It was first reported that a member of the grand jury had made a confession, but it was learned that a trump card to be played is the affidavits of the four men, with collateral information supporting them.

Ashland is reported to be deeply aroused over the investigation, and the old wet and dry fight, which had practically been extinguished, had broken out with new fierceness. There is a general demand, however, that the present situation be cleaned up, and Attorney-General Hogan expects co-operation of citizens to get rid of the muss.

Washington, Jan. 2.—President Taft today definitely told Senator Brandegee of Connecticut, chairman of the inter-ocean canal committee, that he would not send to the senate the nomination of Col. George W. Goethals, as civil governor of the Panama Canal zone, because of the opposition by Democratic senators to his appointment.

AND EGGS WORTH 40 CENTS A DOZEN

Washington, D. C., Jan. 3.—Senator Atlee Pomerene of Ohio had a first experience with the new parcels post system which was not wholly a success.

One of his admiring constituents in Massillon decided to send the senator a dozen fresh country eggs as a substitute for the storage variety with which senatorial and other appetites in Washington are usually served and the new parcels post was tried. Senator Pomerene received the package, but the eggs were scrambled.

But the eggs senator does not despair of the parcels post, however. He said that the trouble evidently lay in the manner in which the eggs had been packed, rather than in the system of transportation.

Defeat During the Election Caused Mental Depres- sion—Fell on Ice Recently.

Washington, Jan. 3.—Representative William W. Wedemeyer of Ann Arbor, Mich., who suddenly went insane at Colon, Panama, at the time of President Taft's recent visit to the isthmus, jumped overboard last night from a ship to which he had been taken at Colon. Efforts are being made to recover his body.

Representative Wedemeyer went to the isthmus with a congressional party with the president. On the voyage from New York he collapsed and was taken first to a sanitarium in Panama and later put in confinement in a hospital, where he became violent and raved about his defeat at the last election. He developed a suicidal tendency and was closely watched.

Wedemeyer's friends say that a few days before leaving for the isthmus he fell and struck his head on an icy sidewalk. It was not regarded as serious and did not deter him from going with the congressional party.

She was bound over to the federal grand jury and arraigned here at $1000.

Jefferson, O., Jan. 3.—In connection with the case of Joe Cresto, convicted of manslaughter for killing Mike Montana at Rock Creek last July, in which a new trial has been granted on the ground of misconduct of the jury, it was stated Monday in a dispatch from here that the court constable refused to call a doctor for Juror D. W. Phillips, 52, said to have been taken ill during the deliberation unless a verdict was ready to report, and that in order to gain medical attention to save Phillip's life, the jury returned a verdict of guilty.

This is not true. Sheriff L. B. Sheldon said today that no one connected with the court was asked or refused to obtain medical attention for the juror.

INAUGURAL PROGRAM IS ARRANGED

White Color to Predomi- nate in Lavish Military Display

PARADE ROUTE FIXED

Gov. Harmon Will Leave Af- ter Parade for Home in Cincinnati—The Old Guard Honored.

Columbus, O., Jan. 3.—As the outcome of a meeting here of the committee of the Columbus Inaugural Association with Major George H. Wood, adjutant general of Governor-elect James M. Cox, final details of the inauguration day ceremonies, Jan. 13, were arranged.

White is to be the predominating color in a most lavish military display. The two governors, Judson Harmon retiring and James M. Cox coming in will be drawn by four white horses and escorted by white uniformed soldiers. Company A, Seventh Infantry, Zanesville, Colonel Charles C. Wilshire commanding, in uniforms of white serge and gold braid, will precede the governor's carriage. On each side of the gubernatorial carriage two troopers of Troop B of this city will carry on white horses the scarlet and gold standard of Ohio. The governor's staff, mounted, will follow the carriage.

In the second carriage in the parade will ride Lieutenant Governor Hugh L. Nichols, Speaker Charles L. Swain and Chairman Claude Meeker of the Inaugural Association, and chairman H. P. Wolfe of the reception committee. The remainder of the official party will ride in automobiles.

Governor Harmon's participation in the day's ceremonies will end with the parade. When it has passed, Frederick W. Shumacher, former president of the Chamber of Commerce and a committee of citizens, will escort Governor Harmon to the Union Station and bid him good-by, as he leaves for his Cincinnati home.

Announcement of the official program for the ceremonies of induction into the gubernatorial chair was announced. Troop B, O. N. G., at 10 o'clock will escort Governor Harmon, and at 11 o'clock will escort Governor Cox from their respective residences to the governor's office. The senate and house inaugural committees will escort the gubernatorial party to the rotunda for the ceremonies, beginning at 11:30 a. m.

The Fourth Regiment orchestra will play "America." Rev. W. C. Hale, pastor Reformed church, Dayton, will pronounce the invocation. The Columbus Democratic Glee Club will sing the soldiers' chorus from "Faust." Judge John E. Sater, U. S. district court, will deliver the introductory address. Governor Harmon will present the official commission to Governor Cox.

At 12 o'clock the oath of office will be administered to Governor Cox by Chief Justice John A. Shauk. Simultaneously the Trinity chorale will play and the official salute of 17 guns will be fired by Major Harold M. Bush and a detail from Battery C.

Governor Cox will deliver the inaugural address. The Glee Club will sing a song entitled "Welcome to Jimmie Cox," composed by Miss Nellie Evans, a Columbus teacher. Dr. Washington Gladden will pronounce the benediction. The orchestra will play "Hail to the Chief."

In the body of the rotunda will be 180 seats, which will be entirely reserved for members of the senate and house. On the rostrum will be 50 seats, all but 10 of which will be reserved for judges of the supreme court and state officials. Ten seats will be occupied by the personal party of Governor Cox. The public will be admitted to standing room in the rotunda. All the doors will be open to the public except the north door.

During the public reception from 3 p. m. to 5 p. m., Governor Cox will stand at the southwest corner of the rotunda. Political clubs will be received first, followed by the general public. In the receiving line with the governor will stand the Old Guard G. A. R. and a committee of 40 citizens.

Details of the program for the dress reception in the evening in the senate chamber are yet to be worked out. Adjutant General Weybrecht has requested denizens of buildings facing the state house grounds on the north to raise all windows at noon, just before the 17-gun salute is fired. Four years ago when the Harmon salute was fired $80 worth of window glass was broken by the concussion. The state paid the bill.

OBITUARY

MRS. SARAH K. HUSTON.

The funeral of Mrs. Sarah K. Huston was held from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles McGough, in West Main street, Thursday afternoon, and was attended by a large number of friends. Mrs. Huston was a woman of a kind, loving disposition and was loved by all who knew her and will be sadly missed by all who were so fortunate as to be numbered among her friends. Mrs. Huston was registered in Washington as an army nurse, which is a great honor, and will be given the honor of a soldier's burial when buried, as she was a good, true friend to all old soldiers and was always willing to lend a helping hand when requested. Mr. Bigbee will have charge of her burial, which will be announced later in the paper, as was one of her last wishes to be placed in the vault a few days which was respected by her heart-broken children.

MISS JANE DAVIES.

Miss Jane Davies passed away at the Newark Sanitarium at 1 o'clock Friday morning. Miss Davies was born in Mold, North Wales, March 29, 1849. Her childhood days were spent in Wigan, Eng. In the summer of 1864 she came with her widowed mother to Newark, O., where she has spent the remainder of her life, with the exception of a few years that she lived with her sister, Mrs. D. J. Davies, in McKean township.

In early life she made a public profession of her faith in Christ by uniting with the First Congregational church, where she was a faithful and regular attendant at its services as long as her health permitted. She has been a great sufferer with arthritis, and in the last few years, the last six of which have been spent at the Newark Sanitarium, where she has made many friends by her cheerful and kind disposition, while her patient suffering has been a marvel to all. She is survived by three sisters, Mrs. John May of Chester, England, Mrs. David J. Davis of Granville, O., and Mrs. J. E. Tingle of Indianapolis, Ind. The funeral will take place at the home of her cousin, Mary J. Lloyd, Eleventh street, at 2 o'clock Sunday, Rev. T. H. Warner officiating. Interment in Cedar Hill cemetery.

MRS. I. D. AVERY.

Mrs. I. D. Avery, age 39 years, died at her home in Hebron Thursday evening, January 2, at 7:00 o'clock after a lingering illness of tuberculosis. She leaves her husband and two small children, a mother, two brothers, Robert Slocum of Newark, and Frotus Slocum of Kirkville, and one sister, Mrs. John Gamble of Hebron. The funeral will be held Sunday at the home at 1:30 o'clock. Rev. J. F. Kanuth of the M. E. church officiating. Burial in Hebron cemetery.

FUNERAL OF NATHANIEL HENRY
The funeral services of Nathaniel Henry, who died Dec. 31, were held Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock at 155 Maholm street. The services were conducted by Rev. Calvin Hazlett, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. Interment was made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to thank our neighbors and friends for kindness shown us in the sickness and death of our wife and mother, Mrs. Mary E. Woolard, the Rev. M. A. Lamp for his words of consolation; the quartette for the beautiful musical selections. We also wish to express our thanks for the beautiful floral offerings. Mr. J. P. Woolard and Children.

DOC EDWARDS TURNED LOOSE.

The name of Doc Edwards appeared in a list of prisoners released from the reformatory last week on parole. The charge of rape which was preferred against him was never prosecuted, for reasons perhaps known to but few. The indictment against him in Cuyahoga county was merely for enticing the child away from home, an offense which was not committed in that county at all. Yet Doc pleaded guilty and served several days. By some it is hoped that he will return to Utica.—Utica Herald.

It's only a step from the plunger to the sponger.

Bonapartists Celebrate Today the Centenary of Louis Lucien

French Bonapartists will celebrate in Paris today the centennial of the birth of Louis Lucien Bonaparte, the second son of Lucien, brother of the Man of Destiny. Louis Lucien was born in England, January 4, 1813, and was but an infant in arms when Waterloo put an end to the triumphant career of his great and illustrious uncle. His father, Lucien, was the third son of Carlo Maria Bonaparte, and about six years the junior of Napoleon I. He played a prominent part as a republican in the revolution, but was never an extremist. When Napoleon became consul for life, Lucien was made a senator, but he soon disagreed with the imperial projects of his brother, and settled in Italy. He devoted himself to literature, and when Napoleon offered him a kingdom he spurned the proposal. In 1810 Lucien determined to go to America, but his vessel was captured by an English cruiser and he was carried a prisoner to England. For a time he was kept under surveillance in Ludlow Castle. Upon his release he purchased an estate in Wiltshire, where Louis Lucien was born a century ago today. Louis Lucien's mother, before her marriage to Lucien in 1803 was Miss. Jourdain, the widow of a wealthy French stock broker. She was famed for her beauty and admirable character, but the alliance was bitterly opposed by Napoleon, who contemplated royal marriages for his brothers. Lucien's first wife was the daughter of a humble inn-keeper.

After the downfall of Napoleon, Lucien went to Rome, taking with him his infant son. Louis Lucien passed his childhood in the Eternal City, and his young manhood in Florence. The bearer of a great name was of a modest and scholarly temperament, and traveled under every disguise that could be devised, but his remarkable likeness to the great Bonaparte could not be concealed. His character made him popular, and everywhere he went he met with an enthusiastic reception. He distinguished himself as a scientist, especially in the domain of chemistry. He also translated portions of the Old and New Testaments into the various dialects of the north of England, and the latter years of his life were spent in translating the Parable of the Sower into seventy-two European languages and dialects. Few men have had greater linguistic and philological discernment than the nephew of Napoleon, and in today's centenary observance he will be honored as a savant as well as a Bonaparte.

A year ago today Captain F. Scott, the eminent explorer, set out on his perilous journey with the South Pole as his goal, and since then not a word has been heard from him. Little fear is entertained for his safety, however, and as this is written the good ship Terra Nova is plunging through the northern seas to bring the intrepid explorer back to civilization. It was on January 2, 1912, that Captain Scott said farewell to some of his companions at a place about 150 miles from "the bottom of the earth." His last message was the expression of a determination to remain in the antarctic regions another winter in order to carry on his scientific investigations. It is likely that the Terra Nova will find the Captain at its supply station on Cape Evans about the middle of this month, and that he will reach New Zealand and the cables about the first of April. Although the South Pole has already been added to the conquests of humanity, it is certain that, if all has gone well, Captain Scott's explorations will add largely to scientific knowledge of the antarctic regions.

"Pape's Diapepsin" Settles Upset Stomachs and Ends Indigestion in Five Minutes.

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyspeptic jot this down; Pape's Diapepsin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. Diapepsin is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back.

You feel different as soon as Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder.

BELIEVES HE IS CALLED OF GOD, SAYS SUNDAY

Columbus, Jan. 2.—Sweeping to a splendid climax with a peroration, lauding the honor and respect paid to John Howard Payne, last evening's meeting of the Sunday revival service was brought to a dramatic close by the great choir taking up softly the hymn, "Home Sweet Home," which made its author famous, just as the name of its composer died upon the lips of Rev. Billy Sunday, evangelist.

"I believe I was just as truly called of God as was Paul or the disciples," said Rev. Mr. Sunday in his afternoon discourse at the tabernacle. "We've got the same commission to keep this world in a state of revival that the disciples had."

Holding up to scorn the religion professed by many he declared with emphasis, "The trouble with a lot of us is that you join church but don't join Jesus." The eyes of America are focused upon the present revival in Columbus. He said at a meeting yesterday morning at the Broad Street Presbyterian church, when his telling strokes were aimed at neighbor-scrapping church women. He declared that 7,500 churches in the United States were stagnant and pointed out that a wonderful field for converts was presented in the 87,000,000 people outside the churches.

In the evening the evangelist insisted upon home training as more important than that of the school, but he deprecated meager salaries paid teachers and preachers. He said he would like to be on a board of education long enough to double teachers' pay.

He made pointed reference to the fact that 27 colleges instruct in matters relating to the hog and only one in affairs that pertain to the boy. Corporal punishment was commended. Segregation of the social evil was lauded and denominated "hot air." Fleet of foot and strong of wind active and agile as a cat, with features as mobile as molten metal, with a keen sense of humor and an ingrained appreciation of the dramatic last night's efforts of Rev. Mr. Sunday partook more than usual of the spectacular, although less of the sensational than some other of his addresses. Particularly effective was his illustrating the manners of the fussy woman who orders all bric-a-brac put away when a friend comes with her children. He then depicted the mutual caresses of the women and the kisses bestowed upon each of the children of varying heights and finally the total collapse and half faint of the woman when her guests depart. As pantomime, it would have been worthy of a place on any stage.

First Official Act of County Commission—Honorable Member Appointed Director of Infirmary, Director-in-Chief of Home News.

Thursday's meeting of the board of county commissioners marked the first regular gathering of the board since it assumed the duties of the infirmary directors, the latter body having passed out of existence with the old year. Beginning January 1, the offices of infirmary directors were abolished and the work of directing the institution devolved upon the commissioners.

The first official act of the commissioners in their new capacity was the re-appointment of Dr. O. M. Kramer of Hebron as infirmary physician.

HARNESS RACING MEN EXPECT GREAT THINGS THIS SEASON.

Stewards of the Grand Circuit, the major league of the harness racing game have scheduled a meeting for Pittsburg to make plans for the coming season. It is confidently expected that 1913 will be the greatest year in the history of the sport. According to the advance predictions, every track that had a Grand Circuit meeting last year will ask for 1913 dates. Aside from the big circuits, many minor associations will offer meets scarcely less attractive to horse owners. Western Canada tracks, which started the season last year with a series of meetings that attracted some of the best trotters and pacers of America, will offer even better inducements this year. California will also schedule several important meets with big stakes. Ohio will probably lead the list of States in the number of meetings to be held, thus establishing a supremacy it has held since 1906, when it passed New York. The Buckeye State not only leads in the number of meets, but in the total value of purses. Michigan usually holds the lead however, in the average value of meetings, although surpassed by a few states and provinces where the number of meetings is comparatively few. The total of the racing seasons for harness horses to be held this year in the United States and Canada will probably be over 12,000, and it is likely that the total of purse money will be in the neighborhood of thirty million dollars. Following Ohio, New York State will come second in the number of meets and total of purses, while Pennsylvania is likely to be third in number of meetings, with Michigan holding that rank in amount of purses. Illinois usually occupies fourth place in both respects. Despite the great and growing popularity of harness racing, it has seldom been profitable for the promoters of meets. To establish a track requires a big initial expenditure for land, grandstand and stables, and the cost of upkeep is considerable. The opportunity to secure a return on this investment is usually confined to a week or less each year. Big purses must be guaranteed in order to get horses that will attract the patronage of the public. Then it is largely up to the well known J. Pluvius. If he smiles on the affair and keeps his tears in reserve, the association has a chance to break even or make a little money. A yaller dog is a better investment.

FOREIGNERS MARRIED BY 'SQUIRE JONES'
The Court room of Judge J. M. Jones was crowded to its doors Tuesday afternoon when the "marrying Squire" officiated at the marriage of Peter Gochman of Columbus and Miss Rosa Berke of this city, both natives of Hungary. The wedding party arrived at the office of the Squire in three automobiles and a car. From the surrounding stores and offices a goodly audience issued and invaded the office.
Miss Berke, the bride, who has often visited the office in the capacity of interpreter, was gowned in white and wore a full length veil. The bridegroom and his attendants wore respectively in habiliments of the latest mode.
The bridegroom is a waiter employed in Columbus and the bride is one of the better known young women of the local settlement.

TOM HANLEY TO GET TRIAL WITH GIANTS AT MARLIN
New York, Jan. 3.—Nine young pitchers have been ordered to report at the New York National league baseball camp at Marlin, Texas, when the spring training begins, to show their qualifications for a place on the Giants' pitching staff. Manager McGraw states that he is going to make a greater effort than ever before to build up a strong set of men for the box.
Most of the youngsters are right handers. The recruits are: Fred Smith of the Michigan State league; Fred Schupp of the Three-I league; E. K. Perryman of the Virginia league; D. A. Robertson, from a small college in the south; La Rue Kirby, of the Michigan State league; Tom Hanley of the Ohio State league; Theodore Goulait, who pitched last season for Indianapolis; Lou Bader of the Texas league, and Al Damaree, who pitched a few games for the Giants at the end of last season.

Proclamation

Mr. E. T. ABBOTT
Coshocton, Ohio
is WHOLESALE DISTRIBUTOR for
Old Style Lager

It is sold locally in NEWARK, OHIO by
GENE SCHLEGEL of the "BISMARCK"

You should try it at once. Watch for the Green Label—it predominates wherever good beer is sold.

Old Style Lager

is the outgrowth of a lifetime of brewing experience. Our Brew-Master learned the business in Germany over 50 years ago, therefore there is a reason for the individuality about the "Heileman Way" of making beer that puts "Old Style Lager"—the beer with a snap to it—in a class of its own—and brings back pleasant recollections of the Fatherland.

It is the real merit—the genuine value that is responsible for the unprecedented demand. It has honestly won its popularity. It is not chance that has made "Old Style Lager" the best.

It is not the material alone that produces good beer, it's the knack of knowing how to blend the different materials to get that snappy taste and aromatic flavor that makes "Old Style Lager" so much different from other beers.

GERMAN WALLACE DEFEATS NEWARK IN BASKETBALL

The German Wallace College team of Berea defeated the Newark basketball team Thursday evening at Hickey Hall, by a score of 46 to 31. The game was an interesting one, though the local boys did not play up to the form shown last season. Their work on the floor indicated their lack of practice. The visitors showed skill in tossing baskets.

The college boys had an open date tonight and agreed to remain in the city and play a second game tonight. The game will be played at Hickey Hall and will be started at 8 o'clock.

Last night's line-up and summary: Newark 31. Wallace 46.

PRESENTED WITH DEEDS FOR LOTS IN OKLAHOMA CITY

John Miller, B. & O. conductor, residing at 241 North Fourth street, and his son, Charles Miller of the same address, received Christmas presents in the form of two deeds for lots in Oklahoma City without cost to either one of the men. They are both doubtful regarding the donation though they are assured that the deeds are all right.

A few weeks ago an Oklahoma land company issued tickets promising a lot to certain ticket holders. A few days later a man giving his name as R. Rogg called at the Miller home and announced that Charles Miller had been awarded the lot. He endeavored to interest Mr. Miller, the father, in his land proposition but failed. He asked Mr. Miller to sign a paper he presented and was refused.

Tuesday's mail brought two deeds, one made to John Miller and the other to Charles Miller. They were drawn up in the usual form, though the property was not described by any definite boundaries and the signature was not witnessed. Despite this fact Mr. Miller has been assured by a lawyer that the deeds are legal.

An agent representing the company called on Samuel Hickey, a friend of Mr. Miller, and endeavored to sell property in the tract. He told Mr. Hickey that he had sold a lot to John Miller and that one had been given to Charles Miller. The latter paid $12 for the deed and abstract.

Mr. Miller declares that neither he nor his son paid a cent to the company and that he knows nothing of the merits of the proposition. He doesn't want any of his friends to purchase property on the strength of the strange manner in which he and his son became possessed of the Oklahoma real estate.

CINCINNATI SUFFERS FROM CONFLAGRATION

Cincinnati, Jan. 3.—The Carlisle building, a six story bank and office structure in the heart of the mercantile district was burned here early this morning, the loss reaching hundreds of thousands of dollars. A 1 o'clock all the fire companies of the city were summoned to combat a great fire. The blaze when discovered had assumed great headway, flames shooting from the roof of the Carlisle building, at the south west corner. The structure houses a branch of the Provident bank and formerly was the home of the Cincinnati Trust Company. Half a hundred or more offices occupy the five upper floors of the building, which is six stories high. Upon the arrival of the Fire Department the entire building was apparently doomed.

The flames were first seen on the second floor probably originating in a defective flue. The building is an old structure and afforded ready fuel for the flames. It is just across the street from the Union savings sky scraper which was the scene of the conflagration of several weeks ago. The Sinton hotel is on the opposite corner. Its hundreds of guests were awakened by the roaring of flames and clatter of the fire apparatus. Clerks and bell boys raced through the hotel calming excited guests. Hundreds of visitors anxiously phoned the hotel office for information as to their safety. They were told that no immediate danger was apparent. Most of the guests left their rooms in no great disorder. Many women, however, showed much excitement and were calmed with difficulty. So great was the heat from the flames that flew in all directions that at 1.50 o'clock all the guests were ordered out of the hotel by Fire Chief Bunker. Simultaneously with this order two lines of hose were directed against the massive hotel building. Everybody reads the Want Column

LIVE LOBSTER AND SHRIMP FOUND IN NEW YORK PACKAGE

New York, Jan. 3.—The first violation of the parcel post law was discovered here yesterday afternoon, when a queer looking package addressed to Philadelphia was opened to reveal a live lobster and a handful of live shrimp. Under the law, live shell fish are classed as "unnailable matter." The package was held up.

More than 1,000 packages were mailed at the general postoffice here yesterday and many thousands more at the branch offices.

Box of Molasses in a Mail Package. Hopkinsville, Jan. 3.—The first accident in connection with the newly inaugurated parcel post occurred here last night when a box of molasses was found broken in an incoming pouch. The jug was in the pouch with the others and registered mail, all of which was more or less covered with the sticky substance. The sender had not insured the package so he cannot recover for it.

Large Jack Rabbit Sent to Chicago. Chicago, Jan. 3.—There was no limit to the variety of the articles sent here through the parcel post. A man living at Des Moines, S. D., sent an immense jack rabbit to a South Western street commission firm. The postage on the package was 36 cents, and it was delivered despite the rule prohibiting transportation of live animals. The first delivery made yesterday was a box of candy sent from Akron, Ohio, to the head of a Chicago business house.

FIRST PARCEL RECEIVED BY O. J. HAWKINS

O. J. Hawkins, contractor, whose offices are in the Newark Trust building, had the distinction of receiving the first package delivered by the Newark postoffice under the new parcels post regulations. The package was consigned to the contractor by an Indianapolis flooring manufacturer, weighed a trifle over one pound and required only seven cents postage. The same package, if sent by express, would have cost 25 cents.

The first insured package sent from Newark was dispatched yesterday, Mrs. James W. Blaisdell of Tuscarawas street, being the sender. The package was of considerable bulk, but required only ten cents for insurance, and will be received today by a friend of the local woman in Mitchell, S. D. Manager A. G. Smith, of the local parcels post division is wearing a worried look today, for the strain of the innovation promises to be more serious than was at first anticipated. The early mails today brought scores of parcels from all parts of the country, and present indications are that at least two to three hundred packages a day will have to bear his inspection. Shipments yesterday totalled into the hundreds, and when it is remembered that he personally supervises the mailing of each package, sees that the stamps are properly affixed, etc. his task does loom rather large.

JAMES R. KEENE DEAD. New York, Jan. 3.—James R. Keene, the financier and horseman, died yesterday in a sanitarium here from the effects of an operation. He was 73 years old and had been ill for a long time.

NEWARK SELECTED

(Continued from Page 1.) taken the steps necessary to secure the sessions of the court. At a recent meeting of the bar of the county the matter was broached and prompt and effective action on the part of the commissioners was the unanimous recommendation. City Solicitor Jones told the commissioners yesterday that the court would require a court room and a retiring room, the latter for consultation purposes. The room in the southeast corner of the second floor, now occupied by the court stenographer, has been suggested as the place for the court room, and the room formerly occupied by the prosecuting attorney has been tentatively chosen as the office room of the court. The latter room must be furnished with certain legal literature for the use of the court, and at this phase of the matter the commissioners were disposed to shy, the impression having been gained that the court wanted a duplication of the volumes now owned by the law library. Mr. Jones cleared this matter up by stating that such was not the case and that the court would require for its constant use less than 200 volumes, most of which cost but $1.50 a volume. In speaking of this matter this morning, Ex-Prosecuting Attorney Phil B. Smythe stated that this item of expense could be materially reduced, because of the fact that the county has already bought most of the volumes needed. The volumes have been reserved for the use of the prosecutor and Mr. Smythe was of the opinion that many cases there were but a duplication of the library already owned by every practicing attorney. The commissioners and the committee went into detailed discussion of what furnishings would be necessary for both rooms and on that basis made an estimate that it would require but $500 or $700 to put the court in running here. In its hearing before the commissioners the committee placed much stress on the fact that the installation of the court here will mean in a very short time a saving to the county of much more than the initial expenditure. This grows from the fact that if the court is not installed here Licking county litigants will be put to the expense of taking their attorneys and witnesses to the place where the court is in session. On the other hand, if the court is enabled by the commissioners to make Newark one of its meeting places in the 15 counties of the district, to Newark will come the attorneys, litigants and witnesses from the surrounding counties. This will of course bring into Newark men and money that otherwise would not come. Mr. Flory of the committee called the attention of the commissioners to the fact that sessions of the court in its own court room here will not only be convenient, but will materially assist in the clearing of the common pleas docket. In the past the sessions of the circuit court here have meant an adjournment of common pleas court and a suspension of the business of the latter court. After the whole matter had been discussed the commissioners took the matter under advisement.
